

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
BEFORE THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

THE BOEING COMPANY

and

Case 19-CA-089374

JOANNA GAMBLE

ORDER REMANDING¹

On December 17, 2018, the National Labor Relations Board issued a Notice to Show Cause why this case should not be remanded for further consideration under The Boeing Co., 365 NLRB No. 154 (2017). The General Counsel filed a response stating that he did not oppose remand, and the Respondent filed a response opposing remand.

Having duly considered the matter, including the arguments raised by the Respondent, we find that it would effectuate the purposes of the National Labor Relations Act to remand this case for further consideration in light of Boeing.²

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that this case is remanded to Administrative Law Judge Jeffrey D. Wedekind for the purpose of reopening the record, if necessary, and the preparation of a supplemental decision addressing any complaint allegations affected by Boeing and setting forth credibility resolutions, findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommended Order. Copies of the supplemental decision shall be served on all parties, after which the provisions of Section 102.46 of the Board's Rules and Regulations shall be applicable.

¹ Chairman Ring is recused and did not participate in this proceeding.

Dated, Washington, D.C., February 15, 2019.
